2. Key Information

The University of Ulsan was founded to produce quality engineers by Hyundai Business Group which believed that it could lead the modern Korean economy by fostering industries. Founder of Hyundai, late Ju-yung Chung was appointed as the first chair of the trustee board. Based on the founding spirit, Hyundai Heavy Industries keeps supporting UOU by making endowments, which were spent to build sports center, library and multi-purpose playground over the past years. As UOU is located in the biggest industrial city in Korea, it could offer a variety of internship programs in cooperation with industries in Ulsan. As a result, UOU's graduates are equipped with practical skills and UOU was ranked at 85th in Asian University Rankings by THE(Times Higher Education) in 2015.
